

SLH Treasure Hunt

- a) How many contexts are currently on the site?
 - b) How many science stories are currently on the site?
- In the science story "Butterflies" locate the PowerPoint on "New Zealand Native Butterflies". Name the butterfly pictured on slide number 9.
- In the context "Earthquakes" there is a Science Ideas and Concepts article on Fault lines. How many active fault lines lie under Wellington?
- Who is Dr Kelly Hare and in which context does she feature?
- In the science context "Ferns" there is a Teaching and Learning activity called Using ferns to survive. This activity goes along the lines of what TV shows?
- The science story "Conserving Native Birds" has an article about Native bird adaptations. Which native bird has the widest gape?
- The context "Life in the Sea" has an animation of a sea star (Look under Sci Media). How many facts about sea stars are shown?
- The context "Sporting Edge" has the NZ Research article titled Marathon versus sprint. What is Prof. Houghton's theory behind the make-up of our elite sporting teams?
- In the context "Fire", in the Teaching and Learning Approaches collection, there is an article called Alternative conceptions about fire. What is one common misunderstanding children have about fire?
- In the context "Just Elemental", use the timeline to discover the date of the first hip replacement using titanium alloy implants.

SLH Treasure Hunt

THE SCIENCE LEARNING HUB
SPARKING FRESH THINKING
www.sciencelearn.org.nz

I/my school could use the Science Learning Hub to...

Topics we're covering this year that the Science Learning Hub could support....

An activity I found that I can add to an existing lesson plan...

The Science Learning Hub has inspired me to....

Colleagues at school that would benefit from knowing about the Hub...